

Andrea Rusnak

VP, Industry Engagement

Andrea Rusnak, an experienced financial services and credit union professional is a Vice President, Industry Engagement for PSCU. In her role, she works with industry partners collaborating to solve challenges impacting credit unions and embracing opportunities to sustain the movement. Andrea has a great deal of experience in managing client relationships and counseling clients on strategies that assist credit unions with their portfolio growth. Prior to joining PSCU in 2015, Andrea served as a Business Development Manager for six years at CO-OP Financial Services. She also held management positions with NYCE Payments Network, Harland Financial Solutions, Commercial Capital Bank, and Wells Fargo.

Andrea serves as the Vice Chair for the Southern California and Nevada CUES Council and co-chairs the San Francisco Sister Society chapter of the Global Women's Leadership Network (GWLN). She is a member for the Credit Unions for Kids Activation Advisory Board that benefits Children's Miracle Network.

In 2018, Andrea was recognized with the Emerging Leader Award from the GWLN, highlighting her accomplishments of an emerging female leader working in the credit union movement, advancing the mission of the GWLN and reflective of her efforts to champion women's leadership in the credit union industry. In 2020, Andrea became a Credit Union Development Educator (CUDE).

She graduated from the University of San Diego with a certificate from the Paralegal Program.